

PORN ADDICTION

Kent Miller, Therapist/Speaker

We totally understand that this could be the most awkward topic of the series. Our prayer is that your conversations about this topic are filled with honor and honesty, that it would be a time free of shame. We are also praying that this video would be a springboard to further honest conversations about how we tackle this subject while walking with God. Kent Miller is a pro at these conversations. He shows up every summer to meet and talk with the young men in the program and helps the guys walk well through this tender subject of porn and masturbation. Know that we are praying for you and your groups as you talk about this topic.

Follow Up Questions:
